

New timetable reveals more bus cuts

FURTHER cuts to local bus services have been announced as First Wessex publish their new winter timetable.

The local bus operator has revealed that the X31 service, which is to be renumbered X51 to create a single brand for the bus company's Jurassic Coast service, will no longer operate on Sundays from September 26th, leaving people without a direct route to Dorchester.

The X53 is also to be cut to a two hourly service on Sundays between Weymouth and Axminster.

However, the group have announced that they are able to provide a bus every 30 minutes between Bridport and Axminster on Monday to Saturday daytimes by combining the X51 and X53.

A First spokesperson said: "Following the demise of financial support for what is now the X51, the Sunday service has been extremely marginal.

"We have analysed where customers are travelling and again the busiest section is between Bridport and Axminster with very few travelling to Dorchester.

"As a result of the take up this summer, we will operate the X53 every two hours from Axminster through Lyme Regis, Bridport, West Bay and on to Weymouth.

"Bridport residents with train connections can still make them from Weymouth station."

Bridport's Green Party town councillors are backing calls from residents for Dorset County Council to reverse cuts to the bus service.

Councillor Kelvin Clayton said: "We are fully behind the Bus Action Group (set up to campaign over cuts to the X31 evening service) campaign to recognise the need for more regular services between Bridport and other local towns and villages, so that people can use public transport to get to work or to the hospital when they need to."

They claim that since 2010, the number of bus journeys taken in Dorset has fallen by more than a million, with serious social, economic and environmental consequences.

Councillor Julian Jones said: "Without decent public transport in rural areas, our ability to tackle climate change is significantly reduced.

"Dorset County Council's own local transport plan says it will improve alternatives to the car, but they are doing the exact opposite – more than 40 Dorset bus services have been cut in the last year and a half.

"We need to bring the Dorset bus network under control with the council setting routes, frequencies and fares.

"In this way, key services like the X31 and X53 can be timetabled to run every hour, with full services in the evening."

Members of the Western Area Transport Action Group (WATAG) feared that there would be no Sunday service at all and is pleased that the X53 will still be running.

Chairman Peter Smith said: "We are sure that the villages along the coast road will be pleased to finally have a winter Sunday service.

"The new route between Axminster, Lyme Regis, Bridport and Weymouth will provide a train connecting service and we hope a route to Weymouth will attract enough users to at least retain a winter Sunday service of some sort in future years.

CHAIRMAN of Bridport Hat Festival Brian Atkinson moved to the town with wife Lynne eight years ago, when he turned 60, having enjoyed family holidays there since 1954. Although an electronics engineer by training, since retiring Brian has studied Marine Ecology, Animal Behaviour and the Green Economy at Bournemouth University and was awarded an MSc in 2014.

● HOW long have you been chair of the Bridport hat festival?

This is my second year as chairman but I was involved for two years before that. I would stress that I'm only the chairman and represent a committee of volunteers who do a lot of the work involved.

● WHAT is the most challenging part of being chairman?

Trying to recruit more volunteers to be both part of the committee and to help on Hat Festival day.

● THERE'S a whole host of activities over the weekend, what can't be missed?

The mass photo in Bucky Doo square is an absolute must – followed by the judging of the fun hat competitions. The dog competition at Millennium Green is just brilliant and as it's at 11am you can see it and not miss the big photo.

● THE festival is now in its sixth year, how has it grown since its inception?

The festival hasn't really grown in size over the six years. Frankly, there is a limit to how many people can actually get in to Bridport on Hat Festival day. Parking is limited and to find a hotel room within a reasonable distance can be difficult if not booked early enough. We do, however, try to build on what has been found to work in previous years – for instance the dog competition is now in its third year and really steals the show! We now also encourage "fringe events", where an event is totally organised by a third party but is approved by the Hat Festival, which will then receive a donation for its charities. This year we have the Allington Hillbillies Mad Hatters Tea Party at 5pm and a ceilidh on Saturday evening at 7.30pm at St Mary's Church hall.

● HOW many volunteers help bring the festival to life?

Well, the simple answer to that is not enough – do please volunteer as it does help to spread the load. We are especially grateful for the help given on Hat Festival day by the Round Table who are experts in the collection of donations from the attendees.

● TELL us about the Hat Amnesty...

This is a simple solution for what to do with those neglected and uncared for hats that just never see the light of day. Just pop in to Snooks Hat Shop in East Street and your unwanted hat will be sympathetically received for re-homing at the Hat Auction, to be held on Thursday, September 3rd at 8pm in The Bridport & West Dorset Club – all are welcome!

● WHO are the chosen charities for this year's festival?

We are supporting the same head-related charities as last year: Brain Tumour Research and The Brain Injury Rehabilitation Trust. Last year we gave them over £2,000. It is a great credit to the town that the festival expenses are paid for by largely local sponsorship with any money left over being donated to our charities – plus any profits from our sales of Hat Festival Bags and this year, of Hat Festival T-shirts.

● ON a personal level what are you most looking forward to seeing at the festival?

As a dog owner I guess it has to be the dog competition. Dogs are part of the family and can really join in the fun – they truly seem to enjoy it! And we do issue guidelines on our website to ensure that competing dogs are happy to wear hats.

● WHEN chairing/organising a large festival like this, what is the one thing you mustn't forget?

That the people of Bridport enjoy a good party and will always participate in the spirit of the event – especially if it just a little wacky and they can air their creative skills in the widest range of magnificent millinery and hilarious hattery that you will ever see!

Coastguards issue safety appeal after sea rescue

WEST Bay coastguards are urging beach-goers to be more responsible after three people were taken to hospital after being swept out to sea.

Coastguards were called to reports of people in difficulty off Freshwater Beach on Tuesday, August 25th at around 4.30pm.

It is believed that the group was by the surf line when one of them was knocked over by a large wave and taken out of their depth.

Seeing that they were in difficulty, two further people entered the water to help, only to be overcome by the large waves and strong undertow themselves.

A coastguard spokesperson said: "It should be noted that whilst the emergency services were on scene, coastguard officers were deployed to two separate groups of people who were playing in the sea nearby, oblivious to the potential dangers."

"One of these groups contained small children that were playing in and around the surf line."

by Lottie Welch
lottie@pemedial.co.uk

Other people attempted to rescue the people in distress.

The three were taken to Dorset County Hospital by ambulance and the others were checked by paramedics on the scene.

"This incident ended with all persons being recovered from the water," added the spokesperson. "However, things could have turned out quite differently as demonstrated by the recent and tragic incident at West Bexington."

"We strongly urge people to be responsible when visiting the coast and not put themselves in danger, which in turn could risk the lives of bystanders and the emergency services."

"Never under any circumstances enter the water, scale a cliff or enter mud to try and attempt a rescue as this only puts more lives at risk. Dial 999 and ask for the coastguard."

Cyclist fights for life after fall

AN elderly cyclist is being treated for life-threatening injuries after falling from her bike by Bridport's Crown roundabout on Monday (August 31st).

At around 2pm, emergency services were called to reports that an elderly woman had come off her bike at the roundabout on the A35.

The cyclist, a local woman in her 70s, fractured her pelvis and sustained serious head injuries. The road was closed while emergency services dealt with the incident and reopened at 3.20pm.

A spokesperson for South West Ambulance Service said: "We were called to South Street in Bridport at 1.47pm to a female casualty who had fallen off her bike."

"She had a head injury and a fractured pelvis and was taken to Southampton General hospital by Dorset and Somerset Air Ambulance."

Dorset Police are appealing for witnesses to come forward.

Police Constable Paul Rogers, of Dorset Police's Traffic Unit, said: "From our examination of the scene and speaking to witnesses, we do not believe that any other vehicle was involved. However, I am appealing to anyone who saw the cyclist at the time of the incident to please call me on 101. All calls will be treated in strict confidence."

Anyone with information can call Dorset Police on 101 quoting incident number 31:175, or call the free and anonymous Crimestoppers line on 0800 555 1111.

■ OFF-PEAK: Sam Rich cuts his mum Melanie's hair in Bucky Doo Square.

Rich clippings for charity as Melanie's trim raises £1,000

MAGNIFICENT Melanie Rich is a cut above the rest after she braved the shave in the middle of Bridport and raised over £1,000 for charity.

Surrounded by family, friends and onlookers, Melanie took to Bucky Doo Square last Saturday (August 22nd) to have her hair shaved off by her son Sam.

Many people walked passed and came out of shops to donate and she managed to raise a staggering £1,239.51 for Macmillan Cancer Support.

Melanie said: "I feel great and I am really glad that everyone has been so generous. It is such a brilliant cause. What is a bit of hair in the general scheme of things?"

Brave the Shave is a campaign by Macmillan to encourage people to be sponsored by family and friends to raise vital funds for the charity. Melanie came across the cause on Facebook.

"It was something I really wanted to do," she added. "I had a friend who died a little while ago of cancer and I hadn't seen her enough beforehand and this was a way of making up for it."

"At the moment this is a whole new start in my life, like a new beginning for me as well as raising money for a great cause."

Bus cuts emerge as new timetable is published

"We have not been able to discuss this with our members who come to meetings but it is of course better than no service at all, which was suggested at one stage as the number of people using the service – X31 on Sundays – have been insufficient to cover costs. WATAG have again stepped in to produce timetables with train connection information including via Weymouth on Sundays as we understand that South West Trains will be accepting through bus and rail tickets via Weymouth."

The WATAG timetables are hoped to be available at Bridport Tourist Information Centre in the coming week and they will also be sent electronically to town and parish councils.

The winter timetable will start from September 26th and full details are available on First's website at www.firstgroup.com

Planners approve 33 new homes in face of objections

CONTROVERSIAL plans to build 33 homes in Bridport have been recommended for approval by West Dorset District Council, writes Lottie Welch.

Chester Commercial submitted an application earlier this year to build homes the site by Watton Park and Bridport Leisure Centre, which is outside the development boundary and an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty.

The proposals received dozens of letters of objection from residents of Watton Park detailing concerns about an increase in traffic and a single access point, noise and disturbance, parking issues and the visual impact of the estate.

But the development was granted outline permission at last Thursday's (August 27th) development control committee meeting subject to the complex offering 11 affordable houses and the provision of 0.48 hectare of on-site public open space.

The report from the meeting states: "From an economic perspective, this development would make a positive contribution to the local economy during construction and would support existing businesses in Bridport, which are all accessible from the site."

Affordable

"From a social perspective, 33 dwellings would have the potential to make a significant contribution to the current housing shortfall and would also provide 11 affordable units for which there is a significant need within the area."

The development site falls in the Symondsburry parish and Amanda Streatfeild, chairman of Symondsburry Parish Council said: "Both Bridport Town Council and Symondsburry Parish Council have opposed the development."

"Symondsburry is aware that this development should provide 11 much needed affordable housing units as well as market housing required to fulfil the county's quota, but are not convinced that this is the right site."

Jellyfish appear in record numbers

VISITORS to West Bay are being advised to keep an eye out for strange creatures emerging from the deep this summer.

Marine scientists are reporting record numbers of barrel jellyfish appearing along the South West coast for the second consecutive year.

The huge stingers, including the potentially dangerous "Portuguese Man O War" type, have been spotted washing up on the region's beaches.

Experts say the "rise of the jellyfish" in the UK can no longer be ignored and are calling for more rigorous research into the creatures – and what their apparent surge in numbers could mean for our coastline.

Dr Peter Richardson, the Marine Conservation Society's Biodiversity and Fisheries Programme Manager, said: "Our national jellyfish survey suggests significant recent rises in the numbers of some jellyfish species in UK seas – most notably the barrel.

"The million-dollar question is: why is this happening? At the moment, we just don't know."

Members of the public have been reporting jellyfish discoveries to the society's website since 2003. But beach-goers have spotted the creatures in record numbers for the last two years.

In 2014 the number of reports rose to 1,400 – and in the first seven months of this year, a further 1,000 have been received.

Scientists are now warning communities like West Bay to be on the lookout for jellyfish, with 2015 set to be another record-breaking year.

Carnival coverage correction:

■ IN the August 19th edition of the View From Bridport we reported that it was the Bridport Pantomime Players that won first prize in Bridport Carnival on page six.

It was however the Harbourside Carnival Club that was the overall winning entry and Bridport Pantomime Players received first in the four or more walking class.

We apologise for any confusion caused.

■ LOOK OUT: Huge barrel jellyfish are appearing along the South West coast in record numbers this summer

"We know that our seas are changing through climate change, resulting in rising sea temperatures and increased ocean acidification, and we know our seas are also heavily fished," added Dr Richardson.

"At the same time, we seem to be witnessing increases in jellyfish around the UK. Is this an anomaly, a coincidence, or are the jellyfish telling us something about fundamental changes in the condition of our seas?"

He continued: "People are fascinated by jellyfish and that's why our survey is one of our most successful citizen-science projects.

"But we believe there is now a need for the government to commission dedicated scientific research and monitoring to answer pressing questions about what is happening to jellyfish numbers, why it is happening and what this means for our precious and productive seas."

Have you spotted a jellyfish washed up on the beach at West Bay? Report it to the Marine Conservation Society at www.mcsuk.org/sightings/jellyfish.php and send your pictures to lottie@pemediaco.uk

Teens complete 250 mile cycle challenge for cancer research

LOCAL teenagers James Millar and Harrison Yarnold with friends Archie Dudman, Tim Nicholson and Harry Dyer have raised £2,152.82 for Cancer Research UK after cycling 250 miles across the South West

A GROUP of fundraisers have completed their mission to cycle 250 miles across the South West to raise money for charity.

Bridport teenagers James Millar and Harrison Yarnold, with friends Archie Dudman, Tim Nicholson and Harry Dyer – who are all Exeter School students – cycled from Bristol to Salisbury, Salisbury to Bridport and Bridport to Exeter earlier this month and have raised £2,152.82 for Cancer Research UK.

James said: "Having completed the ride, we all ache a little but it has been a really enjoyable experience."

"The weather was excellent for the first two days, although we were soaked on our final day. However, we all have some brilliant memories, and are incredibly thankful for all the donations and support – especially the support cars on our days of riding."

"When we arrived at our final destination, with our greeting party cheering us on, it was a wonderful feeling, and despite the hardship we had gone through, it had all gone to a brilliant cause."

"Thank you again to all who donated so far. If you haven't and would like to please visit www.justgiving.com/C-A-C."

STAFF at the Bridport Co-op store have donated another £7,000 to the Dorset and Somerset Air Ambulance through sales from a bookstall.

Since June 2010, the store has sold donated second-hand books for 50p each, and has raised £30,976 for the charity, which has more than exceeded their expectations when they started it.

Rob Garland, manager at Co-op, on Sea Road North, said: "Thank you to all our loyal customers, it is absolutely amazing. I really didn't think it would take off to this extent – raising £6,000 a year is incredible."

"It is one of those things that started after someone suggested we should sell books and it has really taken off. It is absolutely unbelievable."

"Getting to this sort of total is mind blowing and I am trying to get other stores in the area to do a bookstall as well."

The money was handed over to representatives of Dorset and Somerset Air Ambulance last week. They said they are "humbled" by the store's support.

Lara Lucas, communications assistant, said: "We cannot thank the Bridport community and staff working at the Co-op enough. Their generosity over the last five years is humbling."

"It is amazing how such a simple idea such as the book stall has become so popular and successful."

"It has raised such a large amount of money for the charity over the years, helping us to help others."

"Thank you for your continued support, we are truly grateful."

Tennis and painting at Walditch show

WALDITCH Show is back next weekend with an afternoon of competitions, real tennis and games at the Real Hyde Tennis Court in the village.

Taking place on Sunday, September 6th – the same weekend as the Bridport Hat Festival on September 5th – organisers are offering prizes for the best headgear.

Children under 12-years-old are also invited to bring along pictures of "Walditch in colour" for the painting competition.

The show was launched in 2013 to bring everyone in the community together and showcase the talents of the village.

This year there will be an art exhibition, bring and buy harvest table, Walditch apple dipping, tea and cakes along with face painting, smack the rat and a coconut shy.

A free session of tennis and Walditch's own real tennis court will also be available to visitors.

The fair takes place from 2pm to 5pm and proceeds from the day will go towards the village hall and St Mary's Church in Walditch.

THOUSANDS of residents and holidaymakers flocked to one of Bridport's biggest events of the year.

The Melplash Show attracted people from all over the country, including hundreds of farmers and agricultural industry leaders to the West Bay showground last week.

Crowds were able to find out more about the farming industry in the West Country, watch a range of displays and welcome the RAF Falcons as they skydived above.

It was also the first year that the Melplash Agricultural Society, the charity behind the show, unveiled their Discover Learning initiative to get young people interested in choosing a career in farming.

Marcus Beresford, who has been championing the programme with George Streatfeild, said: "The success of our Discover Farming marquee exceeded our wildest expectations.

"It was very rewarding to see so many children totally absorbed in the hands-on experience of milking, grinding wheat and making pizzas, juicing apples, making smoothies, holding newborn chicks and even calving a dummy cow. I am sure they will all remember the day they first discovered farming."

The popular event was also an opportunity for local traders and producers to showcase products and trades and for visitors to have a full look at farming and the rural community.

by Lottie Welch
lottie@pemedial.co.uk

Show secretary Lucy Hart said: "After a very challenging show set-up due to the rain, we are delighted to have had such a successful show day.

"I would like to thank everyone who was involved in any way with our show for their help and support to ensure that the show went ahead and was very well supported.

"The highlights for me were seeing such a fantastic selection of livestock at the show, the new Discover Farming marquee – which proved extremely popular and busy throughout the day – and of course, the RAF Falcons, who provided an excellent display and then visited the show afterwards to meet as many visitors as possible before flying off for their next event."

ADVERTISER'S ANNOUNCEMENT

LOVE Learning Adult Education has a new term commencing September 21st.

New for this year in Weymouth and in Bridport is a beginners level Italian course. Last year students enjoyed a field trip to Florence and plans are well under way for our next trip to Venice.

It's a wonderful opportunity both on a linguistic and cultural level. New Beginners Italian starts at Palm House, Weymouth on September 21st from 12noon-1:30pm and September 23rd from 6pm-7:30pm at The Olive Tree, Bridport.

New Beginners evening/day ten-week courses are starting in French, Italian, Portuguese and Spanish.

There is also a monthly Cookery Club held from the open kitchen at The Olive Tree, starting October 7th with a Basque Country inspired menu, an area in Northern Spain renowned for its cuisine and in particular its miniature, exquisite dishes.

Those interested are invited to come along to our Meet The Tutor event taking place at The Olive Tree, Bridport, on September 12th between 11am and 12noon or at Palm House, Weymouth on the same day from between 2-3pm.

More information can be found by visiting www.lovelearningindorset.com or calling Penelope Frigon 07817 302984.

Crime roundup...

■ ON the evening of Sunday, August 16th, a vehicle which was parked in the West Bay Road car park, had water added into its fuel tank, causing it to break down and inflicting thousands of pounds worth of damage (crime number 55150071244).

■ SEVERAL garages in the Grove Orchard area of Burton Bradstock were broken into overnight on August 17th and 18th.

Searches were made within but no items have been identified as stolen as yet (crime number 55150071503).

■ A VEHICLE parked in East Road had damage caused to its offside wing mirror between August 18th and 19th (crime number 55150072426).

A male claiming to be an antique dealer visited a property in Magdalen Lane, Bridport, on Saturday, August 22nd.

After a lengthy conversation about items that the male may be interested in purchasing, he left the property.

Once alone, the resident discovered that his wallet had been taken, which contained a large quantity of cash.

The male was described as early 50s, 6'3" tall, large build with short sandy coloured hair with grey flecks (crime number 55150075443).

■ ON August 22nd, a nine-year-old girl was bitten by a dog while walking along the road by Parkdean Holiday Park in West Bay with her mother.

They passed a group of three people with a small black Yorkie type dog, which jumped up and bit the girl on the hand.

The owner of the dog became verbally abusive and walked off but remains unidentified (crime number 55150074804).

Anyone with information should call Dorset Police on 101, quoting the relevant crime number.

Time to dust off your hat as town gears up for festival

By Lottie Welch

WITH only days to go until Bridport's annual hat festival, organisers are reminding people about the great events on offer.

Talks about all things hats and a tea dance are just two of the events not to be missed - even for those who are not hat enthusiasts.

On hat festival day (Saturday, September 5th) Roger Snooks, the mad hatter himself, will be talking about "A hatter's tale - the crazy world of hats" at 11am at the Bull Hotel, and at 2.30pm, milliner Jane Lashford's talk is entitled "Round and round - a history of hat making".

Tickets are available from Bridport Tourist Information Centre and cost £5 each or £8 for both talks.

But hat festivities don't stop there, as on the Sunday (September 6th) a tea dance hosted by Glenn Bayliss will be getting people up on their feet.

Taking place at the Bull Hotel at 1.45pm, there will be tea, cocktails, available to buy from the Venner bar, and a prize for the best lady's fascinator.

Tickets cost £10 and are available from Bridport Tourist Information Centre.

Stuart Rose, hat festival committee member, said: "Both talks are sure to be memorable experiences, combining the unforgettable and the unusual."

"The inimitable Roger Snooks, Bridport's own Mr Hat, will present a talk that will be guaranteed to both amaze you at the tale and have you laughing out loud."

"Janie Lashford's talk again will not fail to fascinate and expand your knowledge of hat making. The talks are a must for those wanting to get the most out of the day."

All profits from the hat festival will be do-

■ AS Bridport Hat Festival comes back to the town in a matter of days, organisers are encouraging people to get their tickets for the hat talks nated to Brain Tumour Research and the Brain Injury Rehabilitation Trust.

The Allington Hillbillies, in association with Bridport Hat Festival, will also be holding a mad hatters' festival in Cooper's Field, off Hospital Lane, North Allington, on Saturday, September 5th.

They are raising money for the two charities supported by the hat festival along with Allington Hill and Cooper's Wood and Field volunteer group.

Live music will start at 5pm with all musicians - including Tinkers Cuss, West Bay Jazz 4, the Boarding Crew, Pinky Pernel and Thread Bare Ravens - with all musicians donating their time for free.

There will also be workshops for children, a barbecue and bonfire.

It is free entry but donations are being collected.

For more information and a programme of events, visit www.bridporthatfest.org.

Maumbury Care & Nursing Home 'we believe in good care'

Maumbury Care & Nursing Home has just undergone a £1/2 million refurbishment and was officially re-opened at the beginning of July by the Mayor of Dorchester.

This completely refurbished care and nursing home has 37 individual rooms many of which have en-suite facilities and there are assisted bathrooms, wet rooms and WC facilities on each floor. The home offers high quality accommodation with a warm and homely atmosphere and the opportunity to enjoy all the home comforts and security of a first class care home, whilst still being in the heart of Dorchester.

Maumbury, being managed by Agincare, supports the "believe in good care" campaign to remind existing and prospective staff, clients, carers and partner organisations just what good social care provision means to the lives of those who receive it.

All good care homes are built on the foundation of the team of care staff and nurses, and Maumbury is no exception. With a highly experienced team of dedicated staff and nurses this spacious home has lovely communal lounges, dining areas and a varied activity programme; ultimately offering high quality care at a fair price.

Alternatively please visit our website. www.agincare-homes.co.uk

Hillbillies' fundraiser to boost pair of charities

LOCAL resident Amanda Smith is organising a charity disco later this month, along with her friend Will Rickard and her sister, Louisa Stuckey.

The group – known as the Rambling Hillbillies – are raising money for the Dorset & Somerset Air Ambulance and the Alzheimer's Society, and have arranged for DJ Owen of Wessex FM to bring his disco to town at The Lord Nelson.

There will also be a raffle with a selection of great prizes (worth between £50 and £350) including a bathroom cabinet fitted with an LED mirror and radio, a TV, a portable stereo, and much more.

Local businesses have donated prizes and vouchers, and representatives from the Dorset & Somerset Air Ambulance will be available on the night to collect donations.

The event takes place at The Lord Nelson pub, East Street, from 7pm to midnight on Saturday, September 19th.

Tickets cost £3, which includes a buffet and entry into a prize draw, and are available from Amanda by calling 07792 655659, from the pub or purchased on the door.

Organiser Amanda Smith said: "I would love to see as many people there as possible. I am sure the evening will be a great event and we hope to raise as much as possible."

The Rambling Hillbillies are also taking part in a four day trek to raise money for the two charities.

■ Will Rickard

They will be trekking around Dorset, Somerset and East Devon from Thursday, September 10th to Sunday, September 13th.

■ Louisa Stuckey

Vearse Farm developers to attend council's plans committee

HALLAM Land, the developers of the Vearse Farm site, will be at Bridport Town Council's plans committee meeting next Monday (September 7th).

The meeting starts at 7pm in the town hall and the first hour will be set aside for this issue and to hear from the developers.

The meeting is open to the public and there will be a public forum of up to half-an-hour at the start, when members of the public can speak for up to three minutes each.

Those wanting to attend are asked to register with the town council on 01308 456722 prior to the meeting if they wish to speak.

Other planning items on the agenda will be taken from 8pm.

Cllr Sarah Williams, leader of the council and chairman of the plans committee, said: "I am pleased that Hallam Land has accepted the town council's invitation to attend its plans committee.

"The Vearse Farm site is allocated for up to 760 houses in the draft local plan and the town council has consistently commented on its potential impact on the town and the need to ensure that, prior to any planning application coming forward, the local community is fully consulted on the delivery of any development on this site.

"No decision will be taken at this meeting but it will be an opportunity to hear more about this important issue."

All change for Cornucopia

A BRIDPORT favourite is re-opening and re-branding in an exciting new venture for the business.

Popular antiques shop Cornucopia – with the help of other Bridport business – will open its doors on Saturday with a new look store.

Second Sounds, Vinyl Saturdays and Shirt 69 will be sharing the unit with Cornucopia whose focus will change from antiques to a more musical flavour.

Cornucopia will now be specialising in record players, stereos and antique radios fitted with Bluetooth to help keep them running in the new age.

Second Sounds, owned and run by Sam Robins, has been a part of Cornucopia for a while now, trading in second hand music equipment as well as related services such as refurbishment and upkeep, and will be playing a more prominent role in the shop.

Vinyl Saturdays, will be keeping their store in the town but their product will also be available in Cornucopia and Shirt 69 will be selling t-shirts designed by local artists.

Nigel Mally has run Cornucopia for 14 years and first met Sam Robins when he invited him to take part in one of Cornucopia Antique fairs.

Second Sounds then moved into the unit behind Cornucopia and both businesses flourished together. Second Sounds now moves into the unit Cornucopia once occupied entirely.

The workspace, which has now been vacated, will re-open as the Rough Bark recording studio operated by local musician Logan Carter.

The grand re-opening of Cornucopia, on the St Michael's Trading Estate will be on Saturday August 5th.

APPEAL AFTER THEFT |

Officers in Bridport want to speak to the two women pictured in connection with a theft from a shop in the town.

It is believed that the women took items of clothing valued at £15 and left the store without paying.

The incident took place around 2pm on Wednesday, July 1st at Instant Redress in East Street, Bridport.

Witnesses, anyone who recognises the women or anyone with information are urged to call Dorset Police on 101 quoting crime number 551538559.

Alternatively call the free and anonymous Crimestoppers line on 0800 555 111 where mobile phone tariffs may apply.

Courage rewarded in this powerful

■ IMPRESSIVE: Melissa Denslow, making the move from Lyme Regis over to Bridport to be part of this production, showed she could more than cut it as the wannabe Jet, Anybodys.

WEST SIDE STORY REVIEW by Nicky Sweetland

LEONARD Bernstein's classic West Side Story, which is seen by many as the best musical ever written, was a very brave choice for Bridport Musical Theatre Company.

The show, which relies heavily on a cast of young men who can both sing and dance, would be a non starter for most local societies but this is something Bridport has never been short of and they relished the challenge of filling The Electric Palace with a vibrant energy from the onset.

Loosely based on Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet, the plot follows the battle between the Jets and the Sharks, two street gangs in 1950s New York. The gangs, which are from different ethnic backgrounds, are embroiled in a bitter turf war that sees daily 'rumblings' and some very vicious reprisals. Amidst all of the mayhem however, a love blossoms between Tony, a somewhat reluctant Jet and Maria, the younger sister of the Puerto Rican gang leader Bernardo – which ultimately leads to a tragic end.

The star-crossed lovers in this production were quite expertly portrayed by the young performers, both of whom showed a maturity of performance that belied their years. Cameron Love as Tony gave the role some wonderful sensitivity and emotion. His scenes with Maria, Matilda Boulay, were touching and beautifully performed, particularly when it came to the heart-wrenching finale, which left many in the opening night audience reaching for the tissues. Boulay was so good as Maria that I've struggled to find superlatives which would do her justice. I watch a lot of musicals and to find a triple threat performer of this calibre on an amateur stage is unusual. Gorgeous singing, wonderful movement and totally on point characterisation made for a very memorable performance. I only hope the 18 year old is considering a career in the performing arts in the future.

There were other memorable performances too, from the strapping Ally Hughes as Riff and the suave Greg Horton as Bernardo, who both showed grit as the warring factions in this rather grim tale, which unfortunately has frightening echoes of modern day society. Together with their girls, Jodie Glover as Graziella and Jasmine Mather as Anita, they dazzled with red hot dance numbers, which filled the stage with energy and electricity.

Glover also provided one of the show's musical highlights, with one of my all-time favourite show tunes, Somewhere, which involved the cast dressed all in white in a dream dancing sequence, which was both mesmerising and beautifully artistic.

The choreography throughout was fresh and sharp, for which Rebecca Mather must be congratulated, particularly when making the notoriously difficult fight scenes look easy. She also ensured every inch of dancing talent was exposed, with some of the big numbers whipping the audience into a fever pitch.

Assistant choreographer Jasmine Mather, who also played Anita, was instrumental in much of the Latin spectacle and provided most of the sass factor of the show. When teamed with the rest of the Shark girls, Lauren Glover, Amelia Mundy, Amy Wheatly and Emma Harris, they received the biggest applause of the night with the showstopper America, which gave some welcome light to the otherwise dark plot.

The other comedy interlude came from the cheeky and charming Jets, Richard Vale, Harry Lockett, Ross Hughes, Will Stanley, Harvey Causley and Matt Lockett, when taking off Officer Krupke, played by Tony Glover. The character we love to hate, Glover played the mean officer masterfully and was an able sidekick to Roger Ferry as the vile and corrupt detective.

From the first encounter at the local dance to the very last fight, this exuberant young cast danced their socks off, with Jet girls Emma Surridge, Immie Gordon and Carly Poole never once waning in their hatred for the Sharks, Steven Hicken, Ryan Matthews and Russell Gale. It was also great to see Melissa Denslow making the move from Lyme Regis over to Bridport, showing she could more than cut it as the wannabe Jet, Anybodys.

I have to say I do feel a musically demanding show like this would have greatly benefited from the use of a live band, but I fully understand the financial challenge that having professional musicians posts. That said, this was a very good production and I must congratulate Dave Swaffield and team, who have once again proved that if you are brave and aspirational you really can achieve excellence.

DORSET
COUNTY SHOW
5 & 6 Sept 2015

THE ULTIMATE IN GARDEN FENCING...

Colourfence are transforming gardens across Dorset & South Somerset.

A garden fence built to last, with colourfence once it's up it stays' up, resisting wind gusts of up to 130mph!

Colourfence panels are made from innovative Colorbond Steel and are guaranteed to last at least 25 years*, an occasional wash down with water will leave your fence looking beautiful year after year.

Available in a variety of heights and colours, with or without trellis.

A fence that requires no painting or treatment!

6 Simple facts that make colourfence 'TICK' all the boxes...

- ✓ Guaranteed not to rot, warp, chip or peel for 25 years* (T&C's apply)
- ✓ Fit & forget – 'no worry' maintenance free fence
- ✓ Strong, yet lightweight – can withstand wind gusts of upto 130mph
- ✓ No painting, treatment or repairs!
- ✓ Ensures good neighbourly relations, both sides the same!
- ✓ Beautiful to look at year after year

The Fence that repairs itself.

If you scratch or cut Colourfence, the ingenious zinc element in the Zinalume steel reacts with moisture to form a protective barrier to prevent any corrosion with no action needed from you.

History society to mark anniversary

BRIDPORT History Society will celebrate its 20th anniversary this year and several events are planned to mark this achievement in September.

The first event will be at the monthly meeting on Tuesday, September 8th and the society will welcome author Helen Rappaport to talk about her new book 'Four Sisters: The lost lives of the Romanov Grand Duchess'.

Ms Rappaport, who now lives locally, is the author of several books about Russia and as a historian and fluent Russian speaker she is presently writing a book about the Russian revolution in time for the 100th anniversary in 2017.

All are welcome to attend the meeting at the United Reform Church Hall at 2.30pm. Entry for members is £1 and visitors £2.50.

Boost for drop-in centre

HARMONY drop-in centre in Bridport has received £51.31 from residents of the Fullbrooks Close area.

The group held a fundraising barbecue on August 8th after Magna Housing Association encouraged its residents to host an 'involve your neighbours' event to raise funds for a local charity.

Joanne Seward, facilitator at Harmony, said: "We would like to thank Elaine Davies for organising the barbecue and all the residents who participated."

Folk festival set to return

BURTON Bradstock's very own festival, the Veast of Folk, is back this month with a range of music and dancing events.

After it was revived last year from an old village tradition, the festival raised £600 for the RNLI and has returned to the village to raise even more.

The three day event kicks off with two free events at The Anchor pub on the High Street, firstly on Thursday, September 10th with an evening of music at the Veast Anchor Session from 7pm until late.

Donations will be collected for the Dorset & Somerset Air Ambulance throughout the evening.

On Friday, September 11th there will be an informal singaround at The Anchor from 1pm to 3pm in which everyone is welcome to come along and take part or just listen.

More music and dancing carries on into Friday evening with the family Ceilidh at Burton Bradstock Village Hall.

Led by the Bride Valley Dance Band, the night will include traditional dancing, food and drink.

Booking is essential and tickets, at £5 for adults and £2.50 for children, are on sale now at Burton Bradstock Post Office, by emailing burtonfolk-tickets@gmail.com or by calling 01308 897421.

The main event takes place on Saturday, September 12th from 1pm to 7pm at the Three Horseshoes pub on Mill Street.

It is free entry but donations and proceeds from a raffle and charity stall will go towards the RNLI. Live music from The Bride Valley Band, Delta 88, Mor or Less, Acoustic Rooster, Moveable Feast and last Gasp Orchestra will be playing throughout the afternoon.

Gill Perkins, an organiser of the event, said: "Last year's event was hugely successful. We had a large audience all day in the pub garden with both villagers and visitors, and the ceilidh was a sell out and a real family event enjoyed by young and old."

■ The first RNLI Songs of the Sea Festival and the annual West Bay Fun Day went ahead despite torrential rain which led to the cancellation of four sea shanty groups, the air sea rescue display and all outside stalls and attractions.

The Bridport branch of the RNLI sent their sincere thanks to Parkdean Holidays for saving the day by kindly opening their doors, on August 23rd, to accommodate the event, and to general manager Lesley Whitehead who gave them access to the stage and sound facilities including a sound engineer.

Members of the local music community rose to the challenge and delivered the goods.

Musicians came from as far away as Bristol, Bath and Gloucester to perform on the stage and to also busk around the harbour and in The Salthouse. Happily the day ended in sunshine on the terrace in front of an appreciative crowd.

The duck race went ahead despite feathers being waterlogged and the ladies of the RNLI ran a very successful tombola, as they have done for decades, while inside The Salthouse, they ensured the visitors to West Bay were supplied with delicious cream teas and a wonderful array of cakes.

The RNLI also sent their thanks to Richard and Margaret Attrill at Harbour Stores for sponsoring the event and also to all the volunteers, the general public and the people of Bridport and West Bay who supported the event and helped them raise £2,100 for RNLI funds.

■ THE Ladies of the RNLI at the Songs of the Sea Festival and the RNLI Fun Day - despite the rain a great time was had by local families and visitors

Summer fete raises hundreds of pounds for charity

CONEYGAR Lodge care home's annual summer fete has been hailed a success as it raised hundreds of pounds for charity.

The event last weekend (Saturday 29th) entertained visitors and residents with cream teas, children's games, plant and cake stalls and tombola while raising money for the Alzheimer's Society.

Staff from Sharandys Birds of Prey came with two birds for people to hold, children were able to try their hand at hook a duck and have their face painted and the adults could relax in the gardens over looking Bridport.

James Cross, director of Coneygar Lodge, said: "We had a continued steady stream of visitors and more of our residents came out and enjoyed the afternoon."

"We have just counted up the takings and are pleased to announce that we have made £575 for the Alzheimer's Society."

"It is all down to the fantastic support from our staff, generous donations from local businesses – as well as staff, friends and families – for the raffle and tombola."

PRIVATE CLIENT SERVICES WILLS, PROBATE AND INTESTACY PENGILLYS

SOLICITORS • MEDIATORS

Only three in 10 people in the UK have a Will, according to recent reports, but the consequences of not having one could mean that your estate is not passed on how you wish. Instead, your estate will be divided using the laws of intestacy.

The laws of intestacy apply when someone dies without having made a valid Will. It is important to consider whether the intestacy rules would adequately benefit your loved ones when the inevitable happens. The once accepted "nuclear family" has evolved with a significant proportion of the population now cohabiting. Where a cohabitant dies without having made a valid Will, the survivor will not automatically receive a benefit from the deceased's estate. The surviving cohabitee could find themselves in an unenviable position of having to make a claim against their partner's estate for reasonable financial provision if they had been financially dependent on the deceased. There is no guarantee that any claim would be successful.

Couples who are married or in civil partnerships often have children from a previous relationship and are keen to ensure those children are provided for should they die. They may be concerned to learn that their surviving spouse or civil partner will often take all or the vast majority of their estate outright under the laws of intestacy. Pengillys can help in these matters; simply contact one of the Private Client experts.

Property Services

Whether you are buying your first home or leasing business property, there will be a number of important issues that must be carefully considered before entering into a binding contract. Our property lawyers will advise you on these matters and guide you through what can often be a difficult process.

Private Client Services

As we move through life, most of us at one time or another think about such things as making a Will, what would happen to the children if we died and what would happen to us if we were no longer able to live independently. All too often we just think about these things and put off decisions until it is too late. Pengillys can help you make these decisions and put in place arrangements to ensure that your wishes are carried out.

Steve Peck Solicitor

Steve's career started in the construction industry before becoming qualified in 2000 when he joined Pengillys to specialise in Trusts, Probate and Wills. Following 8 years in Bridport Steve re-joined the Pengillys team and said "It feels like coming home. 'The team I work with are dedicated and committed, with an emphasis on providing good quality care for the client at all times'."

Kate Wadsworth Solicitor

Kate has been a specialist property solicitor for the past 14 years. She relocated from Yorkshire to Bridport four years ago and ran a residential and commercial conveyancing practice in the town before joining Pengillys earlier this year. "It is wonderful to be part of such a talented team here at Pengillys," says Kate. "They combine enormous experience with a real commitment to client care'."

Black to basics

By Gabrielle Fagan, Press Association

SOMETIMES we yearn for life to be simple and our choices 'black and white', in the hope that prevarication and confusion can be avoided.

That's rarely realistic unfortunately, but taking a monochrome approach could be a perfect stress-free solution for decor.

No one's more convinced of the merit and power of a classic black and white pairing than Hilary Robertson, author of Monochrome Home.

"White loves black. Black loves white. Exploring their relationship builds an interior which is timeless, flexible, practical and liberating," she enthuses.

"By restricting the colour palette, having a colour cleanse if you like, any number of eclectic elements can easily exist happily together; inexpensive or simple things will look more sophisticated and decorating decisions are made easier."

Choosing a monochrome interior is a minimalist stance, she points out, but more than that, it's a refusal to get caught up in the drama of colour, with all the attendant complications of what goes with what, which, all too often, bedevils the amateur decorator.

"Once you decide all the colours of the rainbow are not an option and commit to a monochrome scheme, you won't find it restrictive or as drastic as it sounds," she reassures. "Creativity can flourish within the boundaries of black, white, grey and all the shades in between. It actually affords the decorator considerable freedom to experiment with mixing pieces from different decades, adding pattern and layering texture."

Deciding which type of 'monochromist' you are, she says, will ensure your interpretation truly matches your taste. "Just as there are night people, who favour black and moody, atmospheric boltholes, there are others who prefer to bathe in light with black merely providing a subtle contrast," she points out.

Choose from a 'white-out' or 'back to black' approach and transform your home simply into a stylish space.... It might even change your life too!

BIT OF ALL WHITE

You lean to the brighter side of life, preferring shades of white, light-flooded rooms, pale or bleached floors and a smattering of black for details.

"White is reflective, peaceful and restorative and maximises daylight. It's a perfect neutral, unobtrusive canvas for furniture and decorative objects. The white envelope approach - with both pale walls and floors - wraps a space in light but demands some defining characteristics if it is not to turn into a blurry snowy scene," advises Robertson.

"Mixing black furniture, black and white photography and a lamp or two adds punctuation to a room, and a rug combining both colours will ground it, which is essential. There's something awkward about a room where objects float, offering nowhere for the eye to rest."

TIP: Brilliant whites have a more contemporary feel than softer shades, and sit well next to objects with some patina and age. Consider a palette of three different tones of white and vary the warmth and coolness of these. The lightest should go on the ceiling and mouldings, darkest on the floor, and the middle shade on walls.

For lustre, opt for pearlescent white paint, and for a chalky effect, try unfinished white plaster. Dulux's range of whites includes a sharp Mineral Haze 4, which would pair with a softer Java Cream, both from the Him + Her Collection, £24.49 for 2.5L of matt emulsion.

MONOCHROME MUST-HAVES: Black details in a pure white landscape pack a mighty punch, so choose with care. Showcase black and white photography: Silver Birch Trees At The Tate Modern print, £175, In-Spaces, is stunning and keys into our desire to reflect nature in homes.

Give a hall va-va-voom with this palette and opt for a traditional black and white tile floor. Topps Tiles has a variety of effects, and Victorian Chequer Tiles, £5.49 each (£66.19 a square metre), are particularly striking.

Storage is essential, and a white with black trim Kenzie Cartoon Two Drawer Chest, £975, Out There Interiors, is eye-catching. Complete the picture with a black floral print Chelsea Roller Blind, £119, DigetexHome.

Conjure a calm dining room, ideal for relaxing and entertaining with Marks & Spencer's Japanese-inspired Nayoko furniture range. It has a semi-gloss black lacquer finish with copper handles: 3-Door Sideboard, £749; Dining Table, £549, and Dining Chair, £199.

Enhance the effect with Jan Constantine's stunning new Harlequin white china collection, decorated with black diamonds and 22 carat gold rim detailing. Plates from £35 and mugs from £15 each; range available end of August.

Quirky details are intriguing and my favourites are a Large Face Cushion, £50, House Junkie, and a Smoky Fish Mug, reduced from £16.50 to £14.03, Rume.

A tranquil but chic monochrome scheme is so appropriate for a bedroom. Make a centrepiece of a Sassy Boo Black French Bed, double currently reduced to £1,295 from £1,510, and accessorise with a glamorous Coco Print, £145, and Geometric Luxe Throw, £99, The French Bedroom Company.

ON THE DARK SIDE

You are temperamentally suited to darkness, would happily swap day for night, and cannot resist the striking effect of light on dark.

"Black's taken it's time to slink back into our consciousness because it earned a bad reputation in the Nineties where it was all about machismo, with matt black walls, chrome, leather and no feminine balance," says Robertson.

"Now it's been reinvented for our times. This incarnation is softer, more sensual and complex. There's something undeniably glamorous, louche and sexy about a dark room."

"Texture is all important in this interior, which relies on the tension created between hard, soft, rough and smooth to add character. Employing a mix of finishes and materials, from matt paint to glossy lacquer, gives monochrome rooms depth."

TIP: Going dark takes courage, so if your mood's sensitive to the amount of available daylight, limit black to contrasting details. Reserve the darkest shade for the ceiling or paint window frames, mouldings and doors for a graphic effect. Chalkboard paint, a softer black, works well with vintage and antique pieces, while gloss and lacquer suits crisper modern areas. Dulux's Charcoal Drift, from the Him + Her Collection, £24.49 for 2.5L of matt emulsion, is a rich black which could suit a feature wall.

■ THE Hook a Duck stall run by Lee Shale had children testing their accuracy and cunning

■ THE Wyld Morris dancers entertained the crowds with their colourful and musical show

Fun for all at flower and dog show

THE 103rd Whitchurch Canonorum Flower and Dog show proved to once again be a huge success, as the village event attracted bumper crowds.

Barbecues, skittles, flower and vegetable competitions, bouncy castles and a well stocked bar, the popular event attracted all ages from around the Whitchurch Canonorum, Morcombelake and Ryall area.

Lee Shale said even though her and her husband only moved permanently to the area two-months-ago they felt so welcomed by the community they had to help out running a stall.

She said: "It's such a welcoming community and everyone is so friendly, as long as your ready to show willing and get involved and support your local community. The show really is rural Dorset at it's finest."

Apart from the usual dog show, which saw a large number of entrants, the talk of the village this year was potato-growing competition.

In total 56 entrants took part in growing as many potatoes as they could in a three-gallon bucket. Each competitor was given his or her seeds in April and had to let nature take its course. The winners Philip and Helen Legg grew an incredible six pounds and seven and a half ounces.

After covering the cost of the show, any profits made will go to a worthy course, which will be decided at the AGM in October.

■ SHOW secretary Caroline House and her husband Alan who ran the tombola stall

■ KAREN Mitchell and her handmade handicrafts brought a festival feel to the summer event

■ THE skittle alley is always a popular event and there was a steady stream of competitors trying to get the best score

Top tribute to 'Slowhand' Eric Clapton

CLASSIC CLAPTON AT THE MARINE THEATRE

THE WORLD'S No1 Eric Clapton Tribute Band is on a 30th Anniversary Tour. Join The Marine Theatre in welcoming the band back to its stage on Friday, September 11th.

The band features front-man Mike Hall who not only looks like Eric, he sings and plays like Eric. They were formed in 1985 in Newcastle upon Tyne, and over the past 30 years they have become something of a rock institution.

The whole of EC's illustrious career is covered including Cream, The Bluesbreakers, The Yardbirds, Blind Faith, Derek & The Dominos and the solo years. The show is a two hour journey through the music of Eric Clapton including all of his hits - Wonderful Tonight, I Shot The Sheriff, Lay Down Sally, Crossroads, Tears in Heaven, Layla, plus an Unplugged segment.

Classic Clapton have toured throughout the UK including numerous sell-out shows. This will be their second visit to The Marine Theatre. Their first gig here in February 2013 sold out. Fans are therefore advised to book now to avoid disappointment.

Classic Clapton play at the Marine Theatre next Friday, September 11th at the Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis.

Tickets are £13.50 in advance, or £12 on the door. To book tickets, contact TIC on 01297 442138 or visit www.marinetheatre.com

Mad Dog Mcreea

THE FAMOUS PURPLE HAPPY BUS IS HEADED FOR DORCHESTER THIS AUTUMN...

DORCHESTER Arts is fast becoming the place to be for top quality live music acts. From sell out appearances from The Beat, The Blockheads and The Spooky Men's Chorale, the Dorchester Arts team, now based at the Corn Exchange is gearing up for another packed music programme this autumn.

One of their many highlights includes Mad Dog Mcreea who will bound into Dorchester for one night only on Saturday, October 31st.

Mad Dog Mcreea blend a unique mixture of folk rock, pop, gypsy jazz, bluegrass and 'shake your ass' music. From self-penned songs of adventure, drinking, love and life, to traditional songs of gypsies, fairies, legless pirates and black flies - Mad Dog never fail to capture their audience with their infectious songs.

It was at Glastonbury in 2013, with the release of their 'Happy Bus' video, that this popular, West Country festival act began to attract much deserved attention on national radio from esteemed folk such as Mike Harding, and many others.

This, matched with the unshakable dedication of their massive and loyal fan base, Mad Dog Mcreea, were determined to show their fans and media alike they could be seen as serious recording artists too.

Mad Dog's acclaimed new album Almost Home, produced by Sean Lakeman (who performed at Dorchester Arts earlier this year), has done just that. Fuelled with the all the essential Mad Dog energy and antics that the band has become known for, this collection of new material has received rave reviews across the board.

In constant demand and having played just about every festival and gig circuit across the UK, Mad Dog Mcreea are soon headed for Dorchester to share their abounding energy and material from their new album release.

The famous purple happy bus is fired up and ready for action, and there's room for you - so jump aboard!

Mad Dog Mcreea play at Dorchester Arts, The Corn Exchange on Saturday, October 31st at 8pm. Box office 01305 266 926 dorchesterarts.org.uk

This week's new cinema

The Transporter Refueled

THE TRANSPORTER REFUELED <sup>15</sup>

IN THE south of France, former special-ops mercenary Frank Martin enters into a game of chess with a femme-fatale and her three side-kicks who are looking for revenge against a sinister Russian kingpin.

Stars Ed Skrein, Loan Chabanol, Ray Stevenson.

ME AND EARL AND THE DYING GIRL <sup>12A</sup>

HIGH schooler Greg, who spends most of his time making parodies of classic movies with his co-worker Earl, finds his outlook forever altered after befriending a classmate who has just been diagnosed with cancer.

Stars Thomas Mann, RJ Cyler and Olivia Cooke.

NO ESCAPE <sup>15</sup>

IN THEIR new overseas home, an American family soon finds themselves caught in the middle of a coup, and they frantically look for a safe escape in an environment where foreigners are being immediately executed.

Stars Lake Bell, Pierce Brosnan and Owen Wilson.

RICKI AND THE FLASH <sup>12A</sup>

A MUSICIAN who gave up everything for her dream of rock-and-roll stardom returns home, looking to make things right with her family.

Stars Meryl Streep, Kevin Kline and Mamie Gummer.

AMERICAN ULTRA <sup>15</sup>

A STONER - who is in fact a government agent - is marked as a liability and targeted for extermination. But he's too well-trained and too high for them to handle.

Action comedy starring Jesse Eisenberg, Kristen Stewart and Connie Britton.

MISS JULIE <sup>12A</sup>

OVER the course of a midsummer night in Fermanagh in 1890, an unsettled daughter of the Anglo-Irish aristocracy encourages her father's valet to seduce her.

Period drama stars Jessica Chastain, Colin Farrell and Samantha Morton.

Wings & Wheels winner takes to the skies

MRS THOMAS from Shute near Axminster, winner of the recent 'Wings & Wheels' competition in the View from series, straps into her World War II aeroplane. In the careful hands of Annabelle Borrowghes from Tiger Moth Training she is about to taxi out onto Henstridge airfield for the flight of a lifetime at 'Wings & Wheels'.

Mrs Thomas was among the many hundreds of visitors who enjoyed the event on Bank Holiday Saturday. "We were lucky to have that brief spell of fine weather and light winds", said event's spokesman Terry Booker, "It makes all the difference to our vintage and classic aviators and they turned out in strength to help support the Air Ambulance".

As well as the aircraft on show there was an excellent gathering of vehicles and some superb displays by the model-flyers. Early arrivals saw a stately flypast by the Swordfish of the Royal Navy Historic Flight to open the show. The packed airfield was then honoured at lunch-time with a transit fly-over by all ten Red Arrows and the day finished with the immortal Spitfire and Hurricane of the BBMF saluting the 75th Anniversary of the Battle of Britain.

The organisers thanked all the readers and advertisers from View from newspapers for their support.

Hendrix as you've never heard him

BELLOWHEAD'S Benji Kirkpatrick releases a solo album of Jimi Hendrix songs on 45th Anniversary of the death of Jimi Hendrix this September, and The Marine Theatre welcomes him to its stage as part of his UK tour to accompany the release, on Sunday, September 13th.

The live show, entitled Bendrix incorporates half a set of Benji's own material, with the second set entirely dedicated to the Hendrix material and set against a specially commissioned visual backdrop by Shropshire-based artist Esther Thorpe.

Benji reinterprets classic Hendrix tracks as you've never heard them before: - accompanying himself on bouzouki, banjo and mandolin. Benji strips back the layers of electric guitar and psychedelia to reveal the songs in their pure form, exposing Jimi Hendrix the legendary songwriter.

Bendrix plays at the Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis on Sunday, September 13th. Doors open 7.15pm, onstage 8pm.

Tickets cost £14.50 or 12.50, and a TheatreFriends discount available. To book tickets, contact TIC on 01297 442138 or visit www.marinetheatre.com

B Sharp voices shine for Candles on the Cobb

B SHARP Voices shone out this weekend at two magical performances that were part of the iconic and picturesque Candles on the Cobb event in Lyme Regis.

The choir, supported by professional musicians, performed their two new songs 'Candles' and 'Not Alone'. These were devised especially for the two events: an intimate candlelit concert at St Michael's church on Saturday and for the thousands of people on Sunday who flocked to Lyme Regis to see the lighting of 5,000 candles around the Cobb. The music was deeply moving and brought a tear to many a dry eye as young voices sang out across the gardens and down to the beach.

The music was part commission and developed collaboratively by local young singers and John K Miles the musician/composer who worked previously with B Sharp on their Olympic commission 'On Golden Cap'.

When Phil Street read the lyrics he said, "The lyrics to the songs are very powerful and emotional as is the music which accompanies them."

The music was supported by: Bournemouth Symphony Orchestra string players, Kate Turnbull, violin and Roberto Sorrentino, cello and professional guest musicians, Deborah Jordan, singer; Winston Clifford, drums; Dave Manington, bass.

B Sharp Director, Fran Williams said, "Being part of Candles on the Cobb was a really special opportunity for B Sharp and local young singers. They made a beautiful song even more beautiful and their voices carried it out across the sea and the gardens in such a magical way. It was an emotional and moving time for everyone to share while the candles were lit around the Cobb".

B Sharp works with hundreds of young aspiring musicians, singers and producers from across West Dorset and East Devon. This project was part of a wider music and singing programme that has been part funded by Youth Music, West Dorset District and Lyme Regis Town Councils. For information on activities go to www.bsharp.uk.com.

TV comics to headline Weymouth Pavilion

A HOST of TV comedians have been lined up for the autumn programme of Sunday Night Comedy at Weymouth Pavilion.

mouth Pavilion.

TV regulars Seann Walsh, Sara Pascoe and Shappi Khorsandi will all be appearing at the Weymouth Pavilion over the next few months with a full line up of support acts and regular MC Tom Glover.

Shows are priced at £15 a ticket but for the first time the Pavilion are introducing a season pass option which will allow comedy fans to see all three shows for just £30.

The first of the nights will be on Sunday, September 6th with Seann Walsh headlining the night.

Seann is a regular face on Mock The Week, 8 Out Of 10 Cats, Live at The Apollo, Virtually Famous and countless more cementing him as one of the UK's best loved comedians.

Supporting Seann will be inventive one liner specialist Mark Simmons, Seann's regular tour support, and one of the youngest and brightest new acts on the circuit today, Elliot Steel.

Future nights on October 18th and November 22nd will be headlined by Sara Pascoe and Shappi Khorsandi.

Resident compere Tom Glover will host all the shows, chatting to the crowd, taking a light hearted look at the local news and sharing his latest new material with the crowd.

The next Sunday Night Comedy at Weymouth Pavilion will be at 7:30pm on Sunday, September 6th. Tickets are £15 and available online at www.weymouthpavilion.com or from the box office on 01305 783225.

Season passes for two or three shows are available for £25 or £30 respectively.

Greenpeace - How to Change the World

THE GREENPEACE film 'How To Change The World' will be shown at Bridport Electric Palace on Wednesday, September 9th. Doors open at 7pm and the film starts at 8pm.

In 1971, a group of friends sail a boat into a nuclear test zone, and their protest captures the world's imagination. How To Change the World is a hippie heist movie, the story of the pioneers who founded Greenpeace and defined the modern green movement, using rare archival footage that brings their extraordinary world to life.

Written and directed by Jerry Rothwell and produced by Al Morrow and Bous de Jong, How to Change the World chronicles the adventures of an eclectic group of young Canadian environmentalists - underground journalists, photographers, musicians, scientists, and expatriate American draft dodgers - who set out to stop Nixon's atomic bomb tests in Amchitka, Alaska, and ended up inventing environmental activism.

The film centres on Bob Hunter, the charismatic and media savvy leader of a rag-tag group of activists that included Paul Watson, Patrick Moore, Bill Darnell, Bobbi Hunter and Rex Weyler. Hunter galvanized 'the mystics and the mechanics' into a cohesive unit with a single purpose.

Tickets cost £6 in advance from the box office (open Tues-Sat, 10am-4pm) or Bridport TIC (open Mon-Sat 9am-5pm) on 01308 424901, £6.60 online via seetickets.com or £6 on the door.

RSC's Othello at Bridport Electric Palace

BRIDPORT Electric Palace brings the Royal Shakespeare Company's Othello to the stage on Friday, September 11th in an encore showing of the live screening.

Critics agree this production is electrifying. The Telegraph, awarding it four stars, said: 'It feels as though history is being made'.

After more than a decade working in film and television on projects from Star Wars to Holby City, Hugh Quarshie returns to the RSC to play Shakespeare's Othello. He was last seen with the RSC in Faust and Julius Caesar (1996). Hugh plays opposite Lucian Msamati in the role of Iago, returning to the RSC following his role as Pericles in 2006.

Othello is the greatest general of his age. A fearsome warrior, loving husband and revered defender of Venice against its enemies.

But he is also an outsider whose victories have created enemies of his own, men driven by prejudice and jealousy to destroy him. As they plot in the shadows, Othello realises too late that the greatest danger lies not in the hatred of others, but his own fragile and destructive pride.

The production is directed by Iqbal Khan (Much Ado About Nothing, 2012).

Tickets cost £10.50 in advance from the box office (open Tues-Sat, 10am-4pm) or Bridport TIC (open Mon-Sat 9am-5pm) on 01308 424901, £10.80 online via seetickets.com or £12 on the door. Doors open at 6pm and the show starts at 7pm.

Hat Festival fun with Hank

JOIN Hank Wangford and his Lost Cowboys for another evening of music, laughter and tears when he opens the 2015 Bridport Hat Festival. The hat-tastic event will take place on Friday, September 4th, 8pm.

Hank's shows feature superb musicianship, inspiring songs and very funny stories. With special guest Brad Breath, Hank's rural touring saddlepal, there will be toetappers and heartbreakers, Glimpses of Gloom and the occasional rope trick. Martin Belmont will give the best Rock/Country guitar ever, BJ Cole will go stratospheric on the pedal steel, Kevin Foster and Roy Dodds will drive the band forwards and Anna Robinson will delight with celestial harmonies.

Hank sells out at the Arts Centre year on year. If you haven't seen him come and see what all of the fuss is about!

Tickets priced £16.50/£14.50/£11 are available from the box office on 01308 424204 or www.bridport-arts.com And many hats will be worn.

Prodigious blues guitarist to Play Bridport Arts Centre

INFLUENCED by the likes of Walter Trout, Eric Clapton, Gary Moore and Rory Gallagher, Laurence Jones is an exciting young blues guitarist, hotly tipped for stardom.

At only 22 years old, Laurence is already making a big name for himself in blues circles, including being named 'Young Artist of the Year' at the 2014 British Blues Awards.

Laurence released his third album - and second with the Ruf Record's label - 'What's It Gonna Be' in April of this year to critical acclaim.

Laurence Jones, with special guests Red Butler, plays at Bridport Arts Centre on Friday, September 18th. Tickets are available from www.bridport-arts.com or by calling the box office on 01308 424204.

TV star Redmond to headline Comedy Café

FUNNY Fridays return to the Arts Centre Comedy Café this week with TV star James Redmond headlining the show.

Former Hollyoaks, Casualty and Coronation Street star James Redmond is now a regular on the UK comedy circuit and headlined this year's Jurassic Fields Festival.

Best known as Hollyoaks hunk 'Finn' and then later as Casualty's 'Abs', former model James Redmond has now performed all over the world as a comedian.

Redmond is always a big hit in the westcountry though with plenty of tales of his life growing up in the south west with his best friend 'Barry' in Bristol.

He will be ably supported on the evening by Jamie Gosney, a latecomer to comedy who has taken the circuit by storm with his unique take on life as a city boy now living in the countryside. This is Jamie's second visit to the comedy café, back by popular demand.

Completing the line up will be Australian firebrand Taco and award winning musical comedian Faye Treacy.

Hosting the night will be regular MC Tom Glover, who has just returned from a two week run at the Edinburgh Festival.

This month's Bridport Arts Centre Comedy Café will be at 8pm this Friday, September 4th.

Tickets are available from the box office on 01308 424204, £7 adults/£5 concessions.

Every Brilliant Thing

HOW MANY brilliant things in the world can you name? Paines Plough are bringing a hilarious and uplifting show Every Brilliant Thing to Bridport Arts Centre on Friday, September 11th, 8pm.

The show tells the story of a six year old boy who's Mum is in hospital and Dad says she's 'done something stupid' and that she finds it hard to be happy.

The boy starts to make a list of all of the brilliant things in the world for her. Ice cream; Danger

Mouse; the fact that when you jingle your keys, the otters in the animal park come out to say hello - and he can think of hundreds of them. He's going to show the list to his mum, as soon as she's back home from the hospital. This is award-winning playwright Duncan Macmillan's poignant starting point for a funny and heart-warming one-man show, based on true and untrue stories - which charts the journey of that list and its impact on the characters we meet.

Performed by stand-up comedian Jonny Donahoe, who genuinely embraces the audience in a wonderfully inclusive theatrical experience, the show at its heart is a human story that confronts tough subjects: depression and our inability at times to make those we love happy.

Tickets £12/£10 concessions with a number of £3 concessions saved for people in receipt of benefits (terms and conditions apply). Available from the box office 01308 424204 or www.bridport-arts.com

A Beer & Food Match made in heaven

ON THE BACK of the success of their last fundraiser, A Summer Sunday with Instant Sunshine, Dorchester Arts are already gearing up for their next event – and this time they have chosen to do something entirely different. If you like beer but often wondered what type of foods to match with it then this is the perfect event for you.

As pop-up beer and food events become increasingly popular, as well as a sharp growth in the number beer sommeliers across the UK, Dorchester Arts thought this could be a great opportunity to offer their own local version to raise vital funds for the arts organisation.

Beer & Food Match with brewer, Mark Woodhouse will be held on Friday, September 11th at Brownsword Hall, Poundbury.

A number of local food producers have got on board to support the event and will be offering delicious sample foods to try with a selection of beers from Blandford Brewers of Hall & Woodhouse.

Indian restaurant Rajpoot, Waitrose, COOK of Dorchester, Olives et al, Brace of Butchers and The Watercress Company will team their tasty delights with a wide selection of beers from the popular local brewery led by Mark Woodhouse, "Trainee Beer Sommelier Nikki Rowe and I look forward to sharing our passion for ales with the guests to this event. We have been given a great menu to match our Badger ales with, and I am sure we will have a fun and memorable evening"

Nikki Rowe, a microbiologist and emerging beer sommelier who will be the guest speaker at the event explains further, "It's a great time to be a beer lover in Britain and with so many different styles available, there really is a beer to match any dish! At Hall and Woodhouse we have been brewing award-winning ales for over 200 years and we invite you to "treat your tastebuds". Join us on a journey of discovery as we guide you through an evening of food pairings inspired by our range of Badger Ales."

Beer & Food Match takes place on Friday, September 11th at 7pm at Brownsword Hall, Poundbury. Tickets £15, to book call Dorchester Arts Box office 01305 266 926 or visit dorchesterarts.org.uk

Nikki Rowe and Mark Woodhouse will both speak at the Beer & Food Match

DETACHED, THREE BEDROOM PROPERTY, IN UPLYME - £335,000

THIS detached three bedroom property is located in the popular village of Uplyme close to the coastal town of Lyme Regis.

A detached house situated in the popular village of Uplyme offering spacious and flexible accommodation. On the ground floor are the living room and dining room with an additional sun room with doors opening to the garden which could be used for a number of uses. An L shaped kitchen provides plenty of workspace and ample cupboards. Cloakroom off sun room. To the first floor, master bedroom with an en-suite shower room, two further bedrooms and a good sized family bathroom. Outside there is a garden with both patio and lawn areas. To the front of the property parking for several vehicles. The property further benefits from uPVC double glazing and gas central heating.

Uplyme offers facilities for everyday requirements, including a petrol station/convenience shop with post office. There is a lovely church, village hall, cricket club, playing fields and tennis court. The market town of Axminster, with its main railway connection to Waterloo (approximately 2 3/4 hours), is about 5 miles to the West and Bridport is some 11 miles to the East. The coastal resort of Lyme Regis, with all the day to day amenities one could require, is about 1 mile away. Taunton and Exeter are within a radius of about 30 miles, with access to the M5 motorway. The county town of Dorchester is a similar distance away.

For more information or to make a viewing which is highly recommended to appreciate all this property has to offer. Please call Fortnam Smith & Banwell Estate Agents on 01297 - 445666 to arrange a viewing.

Distinctive looks, new engines and more dynamic performance for upgraded Kia cee'd

KIA Motors Europe has carried out a comprehensive upgrade of its ever popular Kia cee'd, a model that has provided the foundation for the company's continuing success in Europe over recent years. With more dynamic performance and Kia's distinct style, the upgraded cee'd offers buyers a car built to meet the exacting standards of quality and design demanded by European buyers.

Kia's European designers have evolved the interior and exterior styling of the current cee'd into an exciting new look, with the powertrain team developing a wider range of engines and transmissions. The improvements include Kia's all-new three-cylinder 1.0-litre T-GDI engine, as well as a range of new safety, comfort and convenience upgrades. The changes apply to every model in the cee'd range, incorporating the five-door cee'd hatchback, Sportswagon and three-door pro_ee'd.

The modifications applied to the cee'd range also include a range of visual and dynamic improvements to the high-powered cee'd GT and pro_ee'd GT models. Already among the best-looking cars in the C-segment 'hot hatch' segment, these changes will further strengthen the GT models' appeal to buyers in this more emotive corner of the market.

The upgraded model will come with a new 'GT Line' specification, offering buyers the sporty looks and dynamics of the GT models and the versatility of the conventional cee'd model family. The GT Line specification is available on all three cee'd body types – five door cee'd, cee'd Sportswagon and three-door pro_ee'd.

These upgrades to the Kia cee'd arrive just as Kia has achieved a major milestone in the model's history. Having started production in 2006, May 2015 saw the 1,000,000th Kia cee'd manufactured by Kia Motors in Europe, and the car has played a significant role in Kia's sustained growth and success since its introduction nine years ago. The 1,000,000th cee'd to roll off Kia's European production line was a high-powered Kia cee'd GT five-door hatchback in 'White Pearl'. The car and its 204 ps 1.6-litre T-GDI (turbo petrol direct injection) engine were both produced in Slovakia, for a buyer in the Netherlands.

Exterior styling: a more modern appearance

The upgraded Kia cee'd inherits the bold, distinct styling of the current model, with a series of visual modifications to modernise the car's appearance.

At the front, the cee'd continues the look that has proven so popular with European buyers, retaining Kia's hallmark 'tiger-nose' grille, sleek wraparound headlamps and integrated fog lamps. Changes to the 'face' of the cee'd include a more angular and wider bumper, with chrome trim around the fog lamps, and a new oval-shaped grille mesh echoing many of the shapes and design forms on the front of the car.

Mum and Dad drive kids mad on car trips, says Ford poll; terrible singing, nose picking and swearing are top gripes

KIDS are often blamed for being a disruptive influence on car journeys, but according to a new Ford survey parents are creating just as much tension while on the move.

Having to endure parents singing is the number one pet hate for children on family car journeys, a new Ford survey shows. Kids also complain that badly-behaved mums and dads shout at other drivers, swear, and pick their noses.

The survey of 2,000 children across Europe reveals that 66 per cent say their parents are annoying on car trips; mums and dads serve up snacks, TV shows and movies to get them to behave; and dads get the thumbs up for being the better drivers – especially from boys. Regardless of snacks, smartphones, and tablets, the most likely response from children to a boring car journey is not surprisingly: “Are we there yet?”

The Ford survey was conducted in order to better understand what children like and don't like about travelling in cars and reveals surprising differences from country to country:

Singing parents are least popular in the U.K. where 39 per cent of children ranked this their biggest pet hate. Children in France, the only country that didn't rank singing as the worst habit, were twice as likely to complain about their parents shouting at other drivers

Across Europe, 61 per cent of children revealed parents got angry or used “naughty words”, with French parents the worst offenders (74 per cent). Italy is the only country where less than half of parents lose their temper (39 per cent)

Asking: “Are we there yet?” when bored is the most likely response overall (63 per cent). Children in the U.K. and Italy are more likely to ask mum and dad to put on some music

“Ford cars feature many ingenious technologies and features – but unfortunately nothing designed to improve the singing abilities of out-of-tune parents,” said Roelant de Waard, vice president, Marketing, Sales & Service, Ford of Europe. “Our C-MAX and Grand C-MAX cars do offer technologies that help find a space and park, and voice-controlled navigation that can find somewhere to eat through the simple command ‘I’m hungry!’”

When it comes to getting children to behave, 26 per cent said mum and dad hand over their smartphones for them to play with, and 20 per cent get to watch a film or TV show. U.K. parents are most likely to offer a snack (29 per cent). And the best-behaved children apparently are in Germany, where 38 per cent claim their parents don't need to make them behave in the car.

Though both boys and girls across all countries identified dad as the best driver (61 per cent), it was Italian dads that got the biggest thumbs up (67 per cent), and U.K. mums who came closest to being the favourite (45 per cent). The children most likely to highlight nose-picking as the worst parental habit are in the U.K., then Italy and Germany.

A view on the Seaisiders - Lyme Regis FC

One-sided stalemate

Lyme Regis Res 0 Seaton Town Res 0

Devon & Exeter League, Division Seven

HOW on earth Lyme Regis failed to win this local derby will forever remain a mystery to all 26 players involved and sizeable midweek crowd on Tuesday night at the Davey Fort, writes HOWARD LARCOMBE.

Lyme, on their home debut in the Devon & Exeter League Division Seven, flew out of the blocks and created, and missed, half a dozen guilt-edged early chances.

Joe Bond clipped the outside of the stanchion after 30 seconds and this set the tone; A Steve Batey free-kick dropped over stand-in Seaton keeper Ben Abbott but clipped the crossbar. Then Abbot did deny Bond and debutant Lewis Middleton with fine saves.

Bond struck a post and soon after Rhys Hayter blazed over from 12 yards – and within the opening 10 minutes!

The shell-shocked Devonians recovered but were still entrenched in their own half.

Hayter went close again with a fierce drive that thudded against the post on the half-hour. Soon after Bond forced another fine stop from Abbott, but the Greens' gloveman was beaten by a towering Steve Batey header from a corner but the ball once again struck the upright.

Sam Jones, who put in a classy performance in the centre of the park, got in on the act in the 38th minute with a curling 30-yarder that Abbott finger-tipped away.

A minute later Lyme finally got the ball in the net – but Steve Batey's 'goal' was ruled out after referee Phil Bialyk spotted a foul on the keeper.

The deluge of chances rescinded in the second-half.

The hosts appealed loudly for a penalty for handball on the hour but referee Bialyk waved away their claims – the ball fell to Bond who's low shot struck the post, and the follow-up shot was hacked off the line.

One of those days for Lyme, but a mention too for 16-year-old Seaton midfielder Jacob, son of former Seaisider Nicky, and cousin of current Lyme players Dominic, Alex and Bradley, who showed some classy touches in the overworked midfield engine-room.

SEASIDERS: T.Fowler, A.Rowe, M.Batey (W.Blackmore 85), C.Larcombe, A.Jaques, S.Batey, S.Bevis, S.Jones, L.Middleton (B.Whittington 21), J.Bond, R.Hayter. Unused sub: S.Taylor.

Double for Bridport Men's A

DESPITE only winning on one rink, Bridport A won their rearranged South Dorset Mens Division One match 50-35 against Weymouth/Melc which was reduced to 15 ends.

The B team drew 54-54 with Portland Vic in a very close game. Roy Lidington's rink scored one on the last end to win, whilst David Eastman's on the last end gave them a one shot victory.

Meanwhile Chris Taylor's team started slowly but pulled back 11 shots over the last six ends to only lose by two.

The A team had better luck against Portland Vic over 18 ends, winning 67-40, whilst the B team playing league leaders Greenhill A lost 50-57 despite Chris Taylor's four scoring 15 shots on the last six ends to win 23-13.

All ladies league matches were called off due to weather conditions.

Lyme Regis Bowls Club

ONLY the South Dorset League team was in action this week; the ladies had their game against Bridport postponed.

Lyme only managed two points against Portland BO with Dave Wood's rink being the only one to score.

In the only friendly played, against Sherborne, Lyme recorded a comfortable win with plus results on four of the five rinks.

Congratulations to Chris & Charlie Barber, John Beadsley & Helen Dowling who have won their way into the county final of the mixed 4s.

Congratulations also to Lyme's W2 team in the Percy Baker. They succeeded in overcoming Dorchester in the semi-final which was played in near moon conditions and will now meet Blandford in the final.

Results: South Dorset League, Division Two - Lyme 49 Portland BO 58. R McLennan, T Payne, B Parsons, D Wood 23-16; M Knight, M Heneghan, A Nabarro, R Legg 15-19; R Bishop, B Smith, N Solomon, A Weech 11-23.

Friendly: Lyme 101 Sherborne 70. P Knight, P Stephens, P Weech, K Clissold 29-6; F Sell, M Bartlett, A Preece, Chris Barber 21-12; A Dorvill, C Clissold, N Benson, N Stephens 13-20; N Bond, J Parsons, D Wood, A Weech 19-18; S Bond, T Payne, B Parsons, Chas Barber 19-14.

Triple tie at top of Morning League

KINGSWOODS, Cedars and Dogwoods are now locked together on 20 points at the top of the Morning League.

The big top of the table clash saw John Boxall, John Davies and Tony Harrison's Kingswoods amazingly drop an eight count on the first end against the Dogwoods, but immediately hit back with 5.4 counts to lead 9-8, finally winning 21-12.

Sheila Burt, Peter Hawkett and Mike Craddock's Cedars were 12-7 winners over Larches to share the lead, with Pat Anderson, Rose and Chris Everest's Firs two points behind the leading trio after a 12-7 win over Hazels.

Bernard Waterman, Phil Benton and Paul Hallett's Beeches downed Alders 12-8, whilst Erica Sarson, Gerry Moss and Peter Hunt's Ebonies defeated Junipers 12-10.

Mary Hansford, Mike Parsons and Hallett's Foxhounds were in rampant form as they held on to top spot in the Evening League, destroying the Harriers 26-3.

Keith Hicks, Lyn Craddock and Roy Gill's Jack Russells kept their hopes of winning the title alive with a 14-10 win over Elk Hounds, whilst Sue Caen, Julian Swinburne and Barry Mapson's Dalmations are also still in the hunt for honours after beating the Kerry Blues 17-13.

A two count on the final end gave Rees' Airdales a 17-16 win over Beagles, whilst the in-form Moss, Brian Baker and Barbara Jenkins' Labradors overcame Colies 14-8.

Lyme Regis Golf Club

MATT Watson continued his winning form as this promising junior won his third competition within a fortnight, writes RICHARD JACKMAN.

He topped Division One of the August stableford with 43 points, leaving in his wake impressive scores of 42 and 41 points by David Retallack and Jon Ebdon.

Division Two was even tighter as Jerry Linnert just pipped Richard Cook on countback with 40 points with club president John Owen in third on 37.

The midweek stablefords saw the top three places taken by juniors – Stuart Wight, 34 points; Matt Watson and George Seed both with 32.

The ladies Daily Mail Foursomes was very close as Rosie Jackman and Ronny Turner just beat Hanna Jacobsen and Rosemary Shepherd on countback, both with nett 74.5 with Felicity Poole and Ellie Langford, 3rd on 75.

Another close finish was in the ladies' August greensomes won on countback by worthy winners Sue Jupp and Marlotte Howard, from ladies' captain and vice captain Rosie Jackman and Caroline Baker, both pairs finishing with 35 points.

Di Smith and Anita Holmes came 3rd with 34.

In the junior stableford, Dominic Beardwood dominated with 40 points with Cameron Moss 36 points and Brad Searle 34 points in 2nd and 3rd.

A view from Third Man - The Dorset cricket scene

WITH STUART BROOM

Damp end foils Dorchester 2nd XI promotion hopes

IN what has been a remarkably dry cricket season, with only remarkably few games abandoned because of the weather, Dorchester 2nds were denied almost certain promotion by rain at Ashmore.

Elsewhere there was a second victory of the season for Weymouth with all-rounder Simon Browne starring, whilst Dorchester won the local derby against Martinstown with Dab Belt scoring his sides first century of the campaign.

Cattistock's opponents Branksome declared their innings midway through their reply when the captain, apparently upset at his own umpire's decision to continue playing in the rain declared, in what appears a fit of pique, and Symene without a regular in their ranks and eight 15-year olds beat Puddletown.

DORSET FUNERAL PLAN LEAGUE

Premier Division

Dorchester 266-8 beat Martinstown 178 all out by 88 runs

THIS final game of the season was eventful not only due to a superb century from Dan Belt (104) that helped his side to victory over local rivals Martinstown, but also the retirement of Dorchester's wicket-keeper Sean Fitzgerald.

Batting first Dorchester lost Marcus Evans (8) and the in-form Simon Mitchem (5) with 19 on the board, but a good stand between Pete Moxom (41) with a mature innings and Belt took the score beyond three figures.

After losing Ian Legg for a duck, Belt kicked the score on, punishing the bad ball superbly, and along with Dan Morris (64) whose shot selection was first class in another mature batting display, added 102 for the fifth wicket. Fitzgerald ended his distinguished career with a cameo unbeaten 15 not out, including two boundaries, as Dorchester posted 266-8 on a really good wicket.

For Martinstown, Chris Read, James Pickering and Ryan Chase (2-15 off ten overs) all picked up two wickets apiece.

In reply the visitors lost captain Ed Nicols for four early, but Lee House (22) and Tom Adams (72) added 102 for the second wicket against some tight Dorchester bowling, particularly Belt (1-26) and George Foot (1-28) off their ten overs, and when Adams went at 121-3, Martinstown were looking at increasing their run rate to win the match. However, apart from Ross Stewart (32), the others perished as they tried to accelerate, with Moxom (4-44) and captain Mitchem (3-35) running through the rest to dismiss Martinstown for 178 all out.

Wimborne & Colehill 147 all out lost to Weymouth 168 all out by 21 runs

DEFIANT to the end, Weymouth produced their second win of the season in the final game of the campaign with Simon Browne the star of the show. The all-rounder scored a half century in the Seaside's total of 168 all out with support from Tony Quayle (14), Dominic Webb (14), Jim Ryall (16) and Harry Mitchell (16).

Wimborne started well and looked as if they would reach the target with ease as Colin Randall (36) and Tom Caines (29) put on 67 for the first wicket, and with George Bartlett (25) making a contribution at three they were 88-1.

However Browne, who had claimed his bowling was only "pretty average" to the press in an interview a few days earlier, destroyed the hosts chances of finishing third in the league with a magnificent haul of 6-37, including three leg before wicket victims, to lead his side to an unexpected 21 run victory.

County Division Two

Branksome 77-3 dec lost to Cattistock 185 all out

ANOTHER superb century from Jon Legg was overshadowed by the controversy that ended this final game of the season, when it appeared the Branksome captain having had his request for the game to be abandoned due to rain, declared his sides innings part way through.

Legg had dug his side out of a hole with 100 to set a reasonable target for their hosts, and in response Branksome had made a reasonable start with a first wicket stand of 47 mainly thanks to Mark Huntley (47).

However spots of rain became heavier, and after Liam Toohill (2-7) had reduced them to 77-3, the home skipper asked the home umpire to abandon the match. However he refused the request at which point Branksome declared and left the pitch.

Cattistock will now have to wait for a ruling whether the decision was invalid and they receive all 19 points or if the declaration is ruled as an abandonment.

County Division Three

Ashmore 213-8 beat Dorchester 2nd 120-2 (D/L reduced target)

IT WAS a shame that this promotion deciding last game should be ruined by the weather, which apart from the opening Saturday of the season has been near perfect.

Dorchester 2nds having restricted Ashmore, the league leaders for most the season to 213-8 were in a great position at 120-2 with a wealth of batting to come, when rain intervened, washing out the finish, and handing the game to the hosts on a faster run rate.

Skipper Simon Joslin said: "There was nothing we could do about the rain, but until then we were confident we would win it."

Batting first Ashmore were looking good at 180-2 with Sam Diment and Russell leading the way, but when Ben Macklin's superb throw from the boundary led to Russell being run out for 70, the hosts batting collapsed as Will Channon and Mike Peak each bagged three wickets apiece. With U15 players Will Morgan (off spin) and Sam Critchell (seamer) also producing great spells of bowling, Dorchester restricted them to 213-8, a target Joslin thought quite obtainable.

We knew they only had four bowlers, and with a small ground and a strong batting line-up we were confident we could reach it."

Macklin and Rhys Cole put on 30 for the first wicket and saw off the main bowling threat, before Peak and Malcolm Stroudley began to accelerate the run rate. With an unbeaten third wicket of 90 they were starting to turn the screw, when the rain came. Unfortunately it was unrelenting and there was no course but to call the game off, handing the game and the promotion spot to Ashmore.

Joslin added: "Mike and Malcolm had seen there best bowlers off and with the batting we had to come we had no doubt we could knock off the 90 odd runs at the six and over requirement, but unfortunately our plans were scuppered by the rain."

County Division Five

Charlton Down 175-6 beat Broadstone 3rd 172-8

CHARLTON Down wrapped up their league winning season with a closely fought four wicket victory over Broadstone 3rds.

An outstanding two and a half stay at the crease from Jae Miller saw him end on 96 not out as he struck a delightful drive to the mid off boundary to clinch victory with eleven balls remaining.

Once again Charlton Down opening bowlers Matt and Dan Stevens bowled with impeccable control and variations conceding only 24 runs from 12 overs when the visitors decided to bat, with Dan (15) conceding only nine runs from his first six over spell and picking up the wicket of Ben Seymour with a smart catch behind by Rob Deadman.

However captain Tim Lanham (74no) and Steve Froud (41) batted patiently and put together a partnership of 93 before a double bowling change brought immediately results.

Rich Fagence (2-29) had Froud caught by Matt Stevens at deep square leg and the same combination removed Steve Newcombe (4), and with James Pretty (1-22) bowling Simon Wilbur for no score it left Broadstone struggling on 115-4.

John Fletcher (27) and Lanham upped the run rate tempo and added fifty runs in quick time as they reached 164-4 looking to push towards the 200 run mark with five overs remaining.

However captain Pete Tucker (2-4) stemmed the runs and a run out and a wicket for Kim Park saw them finally finish on 172-8.

The Charlton Down innings started brightly with Jack Eveleigh (17) timing the ball well before he was caught off John Fletcher (3-40) with the score on 40-1, who immediately bowled Roger Frapwell.

A fifty run partnership between the in-form Matt Stevens (28), showing a mixture of patience, well timed driving and good running between the wickets, and Miller took the score to 95-3.

Park (22), and Miller and added forty very quick runs, but the returning Ben Bassinger (3-32) struck three times in two overs to leave Charlton on 146-6, and requiring 26 runs from the last five overs.

Miller was joined by Pretty and with some intelligent running and explosive hitting by Miller pushed Charlton Down over the winning line with a few balls to spare.

It was unfortunate Miller did not reach three figures, his chanceless 96 not out including 10 fours and one six.

◆ Jae Miller scored 96 for Charlton Down

Captain Pete Tucker said: "To complete a third consecutive promotion is an incredible feat by any club and to win the league again was the icing on the cake."

Martinstown 2nd v Bradford Abbas Sports (game abandoned rain)

THERE was little on this final game of the season between these two sides which was eventually decided by the weather.

With the weather making preparation of the wicket difficult, the game was played on the artificial wicket, and winning the toss, Bradford Abbas batted first starting briskly against Jimmer Reynolds.

Martinstown hit back strongly through the experienced Tony Jacobs (4-28) which included a stumping for Sean Williams, and an outstanding catch by Liam Bamford.

◆ Tony Jacobs took four wickets for 28 runs bowling for Martinstown 2nds Walters (25) and Stedeford (46) fought back, backed up by Wills and Williams to drag the score from 56- 5 to 176 all out off their full 40 overs.

The Martinstown bowlers bowled well in varying degrees of rain, including the youngsters Nathan McNab, Charlie Durrant, and Will Maltby; all in their first seasons of adult cricket; who arguably bowled their best spells of the season.

The hosts lost Williams playing on early, but Bamford (26) led the charge with a belligerent innings.

After he fell Olly Gargrave, who has applied himself superbly to batting this year when available, took over the aggressive mantle, with 9 fours and a six in his 57 not out.

His stand of 54 with Grant Neven was only halted one over after the drinks break, with Martinstown now ahead of the required run rate, when the artificial pitch was deemed to be too slippery for the bowlers to continue.

After a period of waiting while the rain was barely falling and only four overs required to make a result, hands were shaken and a no result game recorded.

County Division Six

Beaminster 2nd 194-8 lost to Marnhull 2nd 231-5 by 37 runs

HAVING invited Marnhull 2nds to bat first, the Beaminster players had to watch as Marnhull captain Christopher Ralph carried his bat for 136 not out which included 23 fours and two sixes.

With support from veteran Les Elsworth (19) and Jemma Sullivan (21 no) who shared an unbroken 65 run sixth wicket stand, the visitors reached 231-5 in their allotted overs, with Pete Bustin (3-33) and Jason Nottley (2-43) the pick of the Beaminster bowlers.

Hugh Rathbone (18) and Dean Spiller (23) made a solid start in reply, whilst Lewis Keenan (31), Nottley who top scored with 44, and captain Justin Gurd (26) scored valuable runs, but they could not match their visitors run rate and were 37 runs short at the end.

SUNDAY LEAGUE

Division Three

Puddletown 122 all out lost to Symene 141-7 by 19 runs

WITH all their senior players involved in the fete at Symondsburry, Symene travelled to Puddletown with eight players under 15 years of age, and three dads, and came away with an 18 run victory.

Batting first Symene totalled 141-7 in a game reduced to 35 overs per side, with youngsters George Wyrill (29) and Will Parks (22) together with veteran Fred Etherington (27), the main run getters.

Puddletown made a steady reply through Nick Browne (12) and Chris Clarke (20), before Fred Etherington claimed the first four of his six wickets to send the hosts in a spin.

The experienced Graham Herron (33) with support from Steve Chaldecott (12) and Sam Critchell (12) looked like they might spring victory, but young Ty Chant (2-26) and the returning Etherington, to complete a remarkable 6-9, saw Symene home by 19 runs.

Top batting performances:

Dan Belt (Dorchester) 104; Jon Legg (Cattistock) 100; Jae Miller (Charlton Down) 96 not out; Tom Adams (Martinstown) 72; Dan Morris (Dorchester) 64; Olly Gargrave (Martinstown 2nd) 57 not out; Simon Browne (Weymouth) 50

Top bowling performances:

Fred Etherington (Symene) 6-9; Simon Browne (Weymouth) 6-37; Tony Jacobs (Martinstown 2nd) 4-28; Pete Moxom (4-44)

FOOTBALL Bridport

Zebras fight back to force replay

Emirates FA Cup, Preliminary Round BRIDPORT 3 SHERBORNE 3

BRIDPORT and Sherborne matches usually produce games of high energy and drama, and this Emirates FA Cup Preliminary Round proved to be no different.

The Bees were dealt a blow when striker Ryan Dovell had to be replaced 15 minutes before kick-off after he felt a reaction in his knee when warming up, and was replaced by Matt Condliffe in the starting eleven.

The match began at a frantic pace and Bridport almost went ahead in the 7th minute when Warren Byerley got on the end of Chris Senior's scuffed shot that appeared to be going wide. However he was unable to keep his toe-poke down as it appeared suddenly through a forest of legs.

However two minutes later he put the Bees ahead with a superb goal. Captain Chris Clarke completed a good run down the left with the perfect cross, and the former Magpie and Terra player rose majestically above his marker to head the ball back across keeper Liam Norris into the top left corner.

Three minutes later however Sherborne equalised with a similar goal, when a great cross from Nick Jacobs near the left corner was firmly headed home at the far post by the inrushing Elliott Mann.

In what was an absorbing encounter of cut and thrust, Senior almost managed to loop his header back over Norris after a corner was flicked on, but the angle was too tight and it dropped just over the bar.

Bridport began to take control slowly and force the Zebras back into retreat, and they went ahead again on 34 minutes with a sublime goal from Gary Bulman. Clarke once again made the opening with a superb cut back from the left byline where Bulman, back to goal and eight yards out controlled, swivelled and volley high into Norris' net.

As has been proved repeatedly in the past, Sherborne can break quickly and Mark Cains, who proved a handful all afternoon, went close when he collected the ball 20 yards out before turning and firing a left foot shot just wide of Ashley Weeks right upright.

However Bridport appeared to have put themselves in the box seat four minutes before the break when Darren Watts produced an amazing run to beat three opponents before playing a one-two with Jamie Symes. Receiving the ball back he drove into the penalty box where he was unceremoniously brought down by George Bennett, who was cautioned for the tackle.

Byerley made no mistake from the spot to increase the Bees lead.

Tails up, Byerley then cut inside from the right to fire in a left foot shot that Norris snatched at the second attempt, although right on the half-time whistle, Caines' looping header had Weeks backtracking to stop it dropping over his head.

The second half started at the same tempo and after Cains had shot straight at Weeks, Jamie Symes headed over Watts' corner.

However eight minutes in, Sherborne got back into the game. Weeks couldn't hold on to the ball as he came to smother a pass played through the Bees defence as Cains moved in. The ball ran free to Mann just on the edge of the box, whose low shot took a deflection off Alan Hill's heel and diverted it past Senior covering on the line.

Two minutes later the score was level. Bulman's shot following a good run, hit Byerley and was thumped upfield where Cains collected it, and after turning inside Clarke, he curled a scintillating left foot shot around Weeks from 25 yards in to the far top corner.

Now it was Sherborne who were in control and the Bridport defence were forced to defend. Harry Montacute went close to giving the visitors the lead just after the hour when his bicycle kick from a corner just missed the far post, before Weeks saved Mann's angled shot after he beat his marker.

Bridport began to rally and Senior's shot following a brilliant run from the halfway line past four defenders was only stopped by a superb save from Norris rushing from his goal.

It appeared after this that both sides had decided to take the game to a replay at the Terrace Playing Fields tonight (Wednesday).

Manager Trevor said after: "I'm naturally disappointed that we didn't win having been 3-1 up at the interval, although I told my players that the game wasn't won. Typically Sherborne never gave up, and although we need to close games out and had chances in the second half, in the end I guess a draw was a fair result.

"Making a last minute change wasn't ideal, but Ryan, who had tweaked his knee in training on Thursday, didn't feel he could risk it. Everyone played pretty well, but I thought Gary Bulman had a good game and Warren Byerley worked hard."

Senior hopes to have Tom Richardson and Sam Buckler available for the replay

Bees struck by late Houghton strike

Dorset Premier League BRIDPORT RESERVES 0 BALTI SPORTS 1

BRIDPORT Reserves found the commitment and confidence missing against Balti Sports last Tuesday following the drubbing by Hamworthy Rec just four days earlier, and were desperately unlucky to lose to a late strike from sub Josh Houghton.

The Weymouth side have surprised everyone following promotion from Dorset Division 1, and have already beaten current league leaders Shaftesbury Town and score 14 goals in their five games to date.

Bridport, strengthened by a couple of players who have been on first team duty recently, certainly didn't deserve to lose, and on the balance of play shaded it.

However it was Balti with their one shot on goal two minutes from time that proved decisive, although there was an element of doubt about its validity, but not the finish.

Sub Simon Proffitt's through ball appeared covered by the impressive

Luke King, but the burly Houghton appeared to push him in the back, before galloping on a firing a crisp, low shot beyond Lee Cleal into the far corner of the net for the winner.

Things might have been different after just 12 seconds of the start when Sports keeper Marco Nott misplaced his clearance from a back pass straight to Gary Bulman, but the energetic midfielder fired the ball straight into the gloveman's hands.

Bridport set the early pace and Tom Blair, who showed some good touches cut through the visiting defence, but his final pass was cut out, before a cross from Tom Richardson was hacked away for a corner by Sports striker Charlie May back defending.

Balti responded and Cleal had to be quick to come out to smother Jason Pearce's measured pass to thwart Ricky Lane.

Ethan Delaney had a great opportunity to put his side ahead midway through the half when a bouncing ball deceived the Bridport defence, but he volleyed wide.

At the other end Nathan Neale was just wide with a header from Bulman's corner.

Bridport continued to dictate the rest of the first half but failed to really testing Nott.

King headed over the top from another Bulman corner at the start of the second half, before Sport's sub Danny Andrews was booked for a cynical foul.

May then fired wildly over the bar from a corner, whilst at the other end Richardson, whose strength was worrying the Sports' defence fired wide following another strong run and shot that went past the right hand post.

King then did well to reach and hook his shot goalwards from a corner, but it went straight to Nott.

Slowly however Balti got themselves into the game, and Dan Peach did well to prevent Charlie Kenderdine getting his shot away, before Cleal was out quick to claim the ball from the same player.

Bridport responded with a Richardson header that was just wide of the upright, and Bulman fired over from 25 yards.

However it was Balti that took the spoils with the late goal to leave them second in the Dorset Premier League.

Bees manager Shaun Annetts was bitterly disappointed that his side had not at least won a point.

"This was a complete contrast to Saturday, in which everyone contributed.

"Although neither side created too many clear chances, it was a positive performance that saw our players get their confidence back.

"Our energy levels were very good, and everyone gave me everything they had."

● THE Reserves got back on track with a 4-0 victory away to bottom side Cranborne on Saturday.

Goals came from Tom Blair, Robin Jones (2) and Adam Storey.

Manager Shaun Annetts was pleased with both the team and individual performances.

He said: "Although we could have doubled the score, we defended well to the extent that keeper Lee Cleal had little to do and kept a clean sheet.

"We also looked good going forward, and played some decent football. The fact we are still creating chances was also pleasing."

CRICKET

Fitzy calls it a day after forty years behind the stumps

A CAREER spanning 40 years came to an end on Saturday with the retirement of former Dorset wicketkeeper Sean Fitzgerald, writes STUART BROOM.

The amiable Fitzgerald played his first senior game for Bridport 2nds aged 13, and after a career that has seen him play for four local clubs he retired after helping guide Dorchester to victory over Martinstown in the final game of the season at the Rec.

Fitzy, as he is affectionately known, turned 53 in August and decided now was the time to spend some more time with his family, especially his two grandsons.

He made the decision after relinquishing the gloves earlier in the season following injury. However with his successor Nick Roe unavailable, he was behind the stumps for one final time on Saturday, and he retired not out, having made an unbeaten 15 not out in a cameo batting performance, finding the boundary on two occasions.

Fitzgerald made his 1st team debut the following season, but after five years moved to Beaminster, before returning to Bridport from his West Dorset rivals ten years later.

Head coach for West Dorset Development Association and assistant coach at Wessex Cricket School Academy, Fitzgerald moved to Weymouth in late 2008 as head coach where he stayed for three seasons, before heading over the Ridgeway to Dorchester to take up a similar role three years ago.

A technically brilliant right hand batsman and wicketkeeper, he played 18 times for Dorset between 1989 and 1992, making his debut against Berkshire in the Minor Counties where he score an unbeaten 19 not out.

He is also an established member of the Dorset over 50s side, scoring a magnificent 110 not out against Surrey in September 2012.

Whilst he will continue in his coaching capacity at Dorchester CC, he intends to stand down as coach of two Dorset youth sides he currently coaches so that he has more time to spend with his family.

Fitzy's achievements were recognised after the game when captain Simon Mitchem presented him with a bottle of wine and a bottle of anti-ageing cream!

Mitchem said: "Fitzy has been a tremendous ambassador for Dorset cricket, and whilst he will be sorely missed on the pitch, we are pleased that he staying on a coach.

"He is such a good influence with the younger players, and great to have around the club."

Bees looking for Ressies match day announcer

ANYONE who has heard the dulcet tones of a match day announcer at any sports event will realise how that contributes to the spectator's day, writes STUART BROOM.

Following the retirement of regular Alan Kidson at the end of last year, Steve Light has stepped in to cover the first team games, and is making a great job of it.

However home reserve match days are not the same without the music and announcements before the match and at half-time, and so the club is looking for a volunteer to brighten up the atmosphere at St Mary's Field.

Anyone who is interested in doing the job, or feels they would like to learn more, should contact club chairman Adrian Scadding on 07785 752522 or the reserves secretary Heather Scadding on 01308 427381, or just turn up at the ground on a match day and speak to one of the committee.
